List specific course objectives in performance based format:

Course No.: DPR-E34 Course Title: BISICALC

1. To have the students recognize situations that can be analyzed by using VISICALC.
2. To have the students understand and utilize the commands present in VISICALC
3. To instill in the students, the idea that VISICALC templates can be created in a common sense fashion. That is, that a student can be up-and-running with the program in a minimum of learning time.
